

DAYL's Dog Day*Afternoon at Lee Harvey's

Saturday, October 24, 2009 from 4-7 p.m.

Lee Harvey's, 1807 Gould Street, Dallas, Texas

Entry Fee is $15.00 at the door (includes two free drinks and cover for two live bands, The Naptime Shake and Lo-Fi Chorus)

The Animal Welfare Committee of the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers is hosting a fundraiser to benefit homeless pets and the organizations that support them. All proceeds directly benefit The Humane Society of Dallas County (a/k/a "Dog and Kitty City"), a Dallas no-kill Shelter and Companion Animal Network, a local 501(3)(c) rescue organization. This event would not be possible without the sponsorship of LACKEY HERSHMAN, LLP and the DRINNON LAW FIRM, PLLC Please RSVP to Cherie at cherie.harris@DAYL.com.

Pet Contests and Silent Auction too! Well-behaved pets are welcome to compete for (1) the "Best Pet Costume" and (2) the "Best Pet Trick." The entry fee for the pet contests is $10.00 for one contest or $15.00 for both contests. The Silent Auction also includes items like two Southwest Airline tickets valued at $800.00! Local pet-related vendors will also be selling pet-related items, with portions going to the organizations.

Pays to be early! For the first 50 patrons, The Petropolitan is providing a gift box!

Cats are welcome, too!
