Boston Terrier, Black with White

Good with dogs Good with kids Up-to-date

Bazil is a sweet young Boston Terrier who lost his family. He was found alone, scavenging for food on the side of a road. Someone saw him, stopped his car, scooped him up and brought him to our shelter, but we have been unable to find his family. Bazil has a charming personality, and he is very receptive to affection. (Yes, we mean you can kiss him all you want.) Though a little bigger than most Boston Terriers, he's still the right size to take everywhere with you. You and he would be the talk of the town!
