Denim is brother to Levi and we hope to be able to keep these two friends together. Denim is a smaller than Levi and tends to keep to himself a little more. He needs a extra time to get comfortable with his surroundings and the humans around him. However, he is not a biter. He will come to get treats and enjoys sitting on your lap and watching TV with you. Denim also gets along with dogs of all sizes and has no problem sharing his sleeping quarters with another small dog.

He's a very sweet boy with a lot of love to give and just needs someone who is patient and caring to give him time and attention.

Come see Denim at Dog and Kitty City.
