Tamale is the smallest of his brothers, and the sweetest of all his siblings. He loves to give kisses and snuggle on his foster mom's lap, and comes running every time she calls for him. He even brings her favorite his toy mouse as presents! (Thankfully he's never seen a REAL mouse, we don't want him getting any ideas...) Tamale is a big fan of belly rubs on his little spotted tummy, which is hard to resist! He's inquisitive and social and affectionate, and just wants someone to throw his toy mouse, scratch his ears, and rub his tummy.

Tamale is in a foster home right now. If you will like to meet him we do ask that you fill out an application first online or at the shelter.
