Large • Adult • Male • Cat
Tabby / Maine Coon / Mixed, Gray
Born 2007

Prefers no cats Prefers no dogs Prefers no kids Up-to-date

This little boy is Bogart. He is blind; born without any eyes. Bogart is between 1 - 2 years old, a gray tabby/Maine Coon mix. He is a healthy little boy, neutered, has all his shots and is microchipped. He was found in Irving, wandering along the side of the road.

Bogart is very sweet once he recognizes your scent and your sound. He sniffs a lot, to get the scent of who is approaching him and to verify his surroundings. He can find his food and his litter box without any trouble. He moves around easily and leaps on and off tables perfectly judging the distance. He looks a little like a bunny! And wiggles his nose too! He is lulled instantly to sleep while riding in the car. He is playful like any cat and could spend lots of time playing with a backpack's strips. If you talk to him he follows your voice and rubs himself into your legs asking to be petted. He lets you know with a specific sound when he's had enough attention. and he expects you to
