Jada was found by a citizen, roaming the streets. Rather than take her to a shelter, they brought her to a vet's office, who brought her to our shelter and we were able to find a foster for this sweet girl.

Jada quickly learned how to "sit" and eased into living in a house with another dog and cat. She is a submissive dog, but has a friendly, loving nature too. She is a calm, easy going dog that doesn't talk much (i.e., not a barker!) She loves people and enjoys getting pets. She is working on her house training and is making great progress.

Jada is in a foster home, not at the shelter. Contact adoptions@dogkittycity.org if you have additional questions or want to arrange to meet Jada. Jada attends our weekly Petsmart events on Saturday - at Forest & Inwood.
