Sisters Aries and Aquarius were brought to the shelter on December 11th by their owner, who said he would be back for them. We never heard back from him, and we could not reach him in any way. They are beautiful, calm and affectionate but shy, and they don't feel comfortable at the shelter. They would like to be home instead.

Aries has different colored eyes, one blue and one lightgreen, and no tail, which gives her a distinctive beauty. She likes to be out and about playing, so she'll cheer up the home she moves into.
