

GEORGIA

Medium • Young • Female • Dog
Shepherd / Mixed, Black with Tan, Yellow or Fawn
Born 04/24/2007

CAROLINA, GEORGIA, MONTANA AND NEVADA

These little ragamuffins were foraging in the streets of Dallas, with their mother, trying to survive a harsh existence. Taken to the shelter where they were given care and good food, they developed into healthy puppies, as you can see. They have great personalities and are easy going. They are very inquisitive about everything around them. If you are looking for a little friend to fill up your time, each is ready to meet his/her new family.
