Doberman Pinscher / Mixed

Born 01/2006

Good with dogs Good with kids Up-to-date

Baron is a young Doberman mix who has been tethered with a chain for his entire life. Since his adoption at the age of eight weeks, he has lived tethered outside with little attention, except for whatever the children from that family gave him on occasion. He was rescued before being psychologically marked by this type of treatment.

Needless to say, he is a happy dog at this time. He will be a great companion for a family with children. He will require basic obedience training due to his exuberance-but that's how puppies are-enthusiastic about the world and the new experiences around them. His curiosity, if any, for cats has not yet been tested, but he does get along with other dogs.
